

Agriculture in Oregon's Lane County

The Bounty of Farms & Farmers

Lane County agriculture producers and processors sustainably provide the highest quality ag products, foods and beverages that all Oregonians can take pride in and enjoy daily. Agriculture also has a profound economic impact on the state both in terms of sales and jobs.

Lane County agriculture is indeed a key to Oregon's economic success. Simply put, local agriculture is more than just farming, 1-in-7 Oregonians have a job connected to agriculture.

What's good for Lane County farmers and the agriculture community is generally good for all of Lane County.

Join us in exploring the great resource that is local ag.

98% of farms in Lane County are family owned & operated.

Lane County Harvested Cropland

Rank	Crop	Farms	Acres	Percent of Harvested Cropland
1	Field & Grass Seed Crops	45	40,820	45.02
2	Forage	921	28,516	31.43
3	Wheat for Grain	42	7,834	8.64
4	Orchards	376	5,824	6.45
5	Christmas Trees	116	3,044	3.46
6	Mint	12	1,787	2.07
7	Vegetables	168	1,600	1.88
8	Berries	193	345	0.4

Source: 2012 Census of Agriculture

Lane County Land in Farms

Segment	Acres	Percent of Land in Farms
Harvested Cropland	90,704	50.8
Non-Harvested Cropland	9,321	5.2
Pasture & Rangeland	65,413	36.6
Land in Farmsteads	13,274	7.4
Total Land in Farms	178,712	100.0

Source: 2012 Census of Agriculture